

The Poem of Mt Erebus

*I am the place of ice
I am numbers of dice
I am here beside you
Please, I wont say boo!*

*I think of you a lot
And all the living you could not
I think of all the happy and lovely memories that could have been
And all the wonderful things you should have seen.*

*You are still loved and we think you have been lifted by the light
I bet its nice and bright.
My feelings slowly sink down to the bottom of my heart and will always be there.*
